WATERTOWN, Mass., June 10, 2024 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- C4 Therapeutics, Inc. (C4T) (Nasdaq: CCCC), a clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company dedicated to advancing targeted protein degradation science, today announced changes to its Board of Directors as part of the Company's aspiration to become a fully integrated biotechnology company. Ron Cooper, a global biopharmaceutical executive experienced across discovery, development and commercialization, has been appointed chairman of C4T's Board of Directors. Bruce Downey, who served as chairman between June 2022 and June 2024, remains a member of the Board of Directors. As part of C4T's continued Board evolution with this appointment, Glenn Dubin, who has served on C4T's Board of Directors since 2021, has decided to step down from the Board of Directors.

"I am honored to become the next chairman of the Board of Directors of C4 Therapeutics where I expect to leverage my experience building fully integrated global biopharmaceutical companies to help C4T continue to deliver on the promise of targeted protein degradation," said Ron Cooper. "Targeted protein degradation is a quickly evolving field with immense potential, and I am excited to work with the Board and management team to keep C4T at the forefront of this modality and help improve patients' lives."

Ron Cooper most recently served as president and chief executive officer of Albireo Pharma, a fully integrated, global, commercial biopharmaceutical company that was acquired by Ipsen in March 2023. Earlier in his career, Mr. Cooper spent nearly 30 years at Bristol-Myers Squibb (BMS) in roles of increasing responsibility in sales, marketing and general management, most recently serving as President, Europe. At BMS, he played a leadership role in several successful product launches, including Abilify®, Atripla®, Eliquis®, Plavix®, Sprycel® and Yervoy®. Mr. Cooper currently serves on the Board of Directors of Generation Bio.

"It has been my pleasure to serve as chairman and help C4T broaden the expertise of our Board by appointing several leaders with deep experience across clinical development, medical affairs, regulatory strategy, capital markets and commercialization. I look forward to working with Ron and our outstanding Board to help C4T capitalize on the opportunities ahead," said Bruce Downey. "On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Glenn Dubin for his support of C4T as he steps down so we can welcome Ron's extensive pharmaceutical and biotechnology expertise to help lead the company in this next exciting phase. We appreciate Glenn's contributions and wish him the best."

"As we pursue our vision to become a fully integrated biotechnology company, we are thrilled to have Ron's experience helping companies successfully bring products through discovery, development and commercialization," said Andrew Hirsch, president and chief executive officer of C4 Therapeutics. "We have an exciting path ahead and the entire C4T team remains focused on advancing our pipeline to deliver on the potential of targeted protein degradation science for patients searching for new therapies."
